

I urge you to protect Wisconsin consumers by extending the WI No Call List. Cell phones need to be added to the list and fines for violations should be increased. I have already noticed that I am getting calls as the public debate increases, although I am listed on both the national and WI lists. It is particularly frustrating to be receiving cell phone solicitations that cost me money. Thank you.